

pearls, is too fine for me, but I love it just the same and will wear it always."

She is growing much thinner and has lost that look of determination to win at all costs that she seemed to have when I first knew her.

"Come up to dinner tonight," I said, impulsively.

She looked up gratefully. "I can't, dear Margie," she answered. "I am on duty, but if you will ask me again soon I'll be glad to come."

"Come where?" said Dick, who just stepped off the elevator.

"To our house to dinner, Dick. I have been trying to persuade Eleanor to come."

Was I mistaken or did a shade come over his face and a flicker of pain pass over her mouth?

Margie Waverly, can't you be satisfied even now that you have "got your man," and the other woman has not? I am ashamed of you.

WARDEN TELLS SOCIETY WHAT REVENGE CONVICTS GET

Newport, R. I., Aug. 30.—Warden Thomas Mott Osborne of Sing Sing faced more than 400 men and women prominent in society in Mrs. John R. Drexel's ballroom yesterday afternoon and brought tears to the eyes of many when he related stories of the life of convicts.

"These men have their sweet revenge on the society that tortures them in prisons," Mr. Osborne said, after denying that his chief thought in his work was for the prisoners, and stating he was thinking primarily of society and how best to protect it from the criminal.

"When these men leave prisons," he said, "they spread broadcast the germs of tuberculosis and other diseases contracted in prison. We can't escape it. They infect the atmosphere, the trolley and railroad cars, the ferryboats and the streets. If we ruin their health they in turn ruin ours. They have a horrible revenge."

GERMANS WANT REAL FRIENDLY RELATIONS WITH U. S.

Berlin, via The Hague, Aug. 30.—Grand Admiral Von Tirpitz, creator of the German submarine policy that gave rise to difficulties with America, believes with Chancellor Bethmann-Hollweg and Foreign Secretary Von Jagow that all differences with America should be adjusted at once.

Von Tirpitz, it is understood, does not look with favor on a formal disavowal of attack on the Arabic. He desires the most friendly relations between the U. S. and Germany be established in negotiations already in progress, but is not yet convinced this end can only be attained by repudiation of the act of one of his submarine commanders.

Source of the following information cannot be disclosed, but it is an absolute fact that Germany's viewpoint is as follows:

First—Germany hopes that the American government will consider informal representations already made to be sufficient, until official report of submarine commander is received.

Second—Question of whether action of submarine commander shall be disavowed must rest largely upon this report.

Submarine report may be expected any moment.

RODMAN LAW PULLS ANOTHER "D. F." DARING STUNT

Rodman Law, who has printed on his cards the initials "D. F.," yesterday rode a motorcycle in the river through the open draw of the Rush st. bridge going 50 miles an hour.

Recently he promised to walk up the side of a Chicago sky-scraper but for some reason this feat has been postponed. Law was unhurt.

"Germany wants peace," says a war correspondent. In the meantime every day she is biting off a new piece.
